Dear Sir

Flax Field Operations Update

Innamincka Petroleum advises that the Flax field was brought back online this week. The field has been shut in recently due to the record floods seen in the region. Production rates will be increased over the next few days as further wells are brought on line.

Repair work has been done to water damaged field roads and flood waters have passed enabling tanker access once again. The first tanker load out of crude oil has occurred.

Yours sincerely
Innamincka Petroleum Limited
